

1. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLO'S) for:
ADMJ 205 – JUDICIAL PROCESS IN CALIFORNIA

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate their knowledge of the history, development, and fundamental aspects and operations of the American court system and judicial process, with emphasis on the federal and California court systems, and roles and functions of the courthouse work group.
- Compare and contrast the American judicial system with those of other jurisdictions; and identify the similarities and differences in the federal and state court, the adult and juvenile court, and between trial and appellate courts.
- Apply knowledge to analyze the court system and judicial process at all levels, and to effectively link them to public policy.