

Tutorials Available in the Writing Center (hard copy and online)

Sentence Development Tutorials Available Only in the Writing Center

- Introductory Tutorial: Recognizing Verbs and Subjects (see *box below)
- #1 Sentence Fragments (see * box below)
  - #2 Run Together Sentences (see *box below)
  - #3 Basic Subject-Verb Agreement (see *box below)
  - #4 Advanced Subject-Verb Agreement (see *box below)
  - #5 Pronoun Agreement
  - #6 Past Tense
  - #7 Special Tenses
  - #8 Use of Apostrophes
  - #9 Homonyms

*Before students begin Tutorials 1 through 4, they should complete the Introductory Tutorial: Recognizing Verbs and Subjects.

Sentence Development, Summarizing, Paraphrasing, and Quoting Tutorials Available Online and in the Writing Center

- #10 Joining Ideas: Coordination & Subordination
- #11 Noun Phrase Appositives
- #12 Verbal Phrases
- #13 Sentence Focus
- #14 Summarizing & Paraphrasing
- #15 Using Quotations
- #16 Correlatives
- #17 Parallel Structure
- #18 Adjective Clauses
- #19 Writing Concisely
- #20 The Concessive Sentence
- #21 Using Commas

Essay and Paragraph Development Tutorials

- Thesis and Topic Sentences
- Comparing and Contrasting
- Argument One: Topics, Introductions, and Thesis Statements
- Argument Two: Considering the Opposition and Developing Your Stance
- Paragraph Basics: Topic Sentences and Unity
- Paragraph Basics: Deciding on a Logical Order for Sentences and Creating Bridges between Them)

Critical Thinking Skills Supplementary Exercises for English 110 and 165 Students

- Logical Method: Induction and Deduction
- Understanding Arguments: Logic
- Understanding Arguments: Rhetoric
- Drawing Inferences from Literature
- Facts, Inferences and Judgments
- Hidden Assumptions
- Logical Fallacies

Essay and Sentence Development Podcasts

These podcasts are brief 3-5 minute informational reviews of our tutorials on essay and sentence development. They are useful in SMART classrooms when instructors wish to discuss essay and sentence development. There are no exercises, appointments with instructors, or writing assignments required for them. Students will need an updated version of Apple's iTunes to view the podcasts.

- FANBOYS Rap Podcast
- FANBOYS Rap Podcast: Complete Tutorial
- Noun Phrase Appositives Punctuation Podcast
- Verbal Phrases Podcast
- Sentence Focus Podcast
- Taking an In-Class Essay Podcast