

Process Questionnaire

On a separate piece of paper, please take a few moments to respond honestly to the following questions.

1. What did you do well in this essay? Is there a particular sentence, paragraph, illustration or idea you are proud of or happy with? Please be specific. (e.g. I like the third paragraph on page 2 because...)
2. What was challenging or difficult for you in this essay? Again, please be specific.
3. If you could, right now, revise a certain part or work on a certain section, what would it be?
4. What, specifically, would you like me to give you feedback on? What specific questions or concerns do you have about this essay, or writing in general?
5. What was most helpful to you as you worked on this essay? (A certain handout, freewrite, a step in the process, sentence work, something else...) What gave you insight or helped make writing this essay more interesting or easier for you?
