

1.

a) Describe the relationship between the two lines in terms of their slopes.

b) Write the equation of each line in slope-intercept form by first finding each line's slope and y-intercept.

2.

a) Describe the relationship between the two lines in terms of their slopes.

b) Write the equation of each line in slope-intercept form by first finding each line's slope and y-intercept.

3.

a) Describe the relationship between the two lines in terms of their slopes.

b) Write the equation of each line in slope-intercept form by first finding each line's slope and y-intercept.