

Time Schedule: ESOL 840AA Spring 2016

Warning: Some of these dates can change if something comes up.

In general, count on Harry Potter tests as every Wednesday, so I didn't write them below. In general, your essay first drafts will be due on Wednesdays of the weeks before the final paper is due. On these Wednesdays we have a peer review. The next day, Fridays, we go to the lab where I can help as you type up your second drafts. Didn't finish? You can revise the paper more over the weekend. A second, more in-depth peer review will usually take place on Monday for the paper you worked on over the weekend, and then the final draft is due the next Wednesday of the weeks indicated below.
