8	Old Business
	None
9	New Business
9.1	Public Safety DSC will discuss public safety on each campus and if there is a need to advocate at the district level for additional resources to make campuses safer. We will take action if needed.		Discussion Action	10
9.2	District Teaching and Learning Committee (Time Specific 1:40 PM) We need a student appointed by DSC to DTLC and establish a process of DSC appointing students to district level shared governance. DTLC Handbook		Discussion Action	10
9.3	Guidance on Plagiarism and Artificial Intelligence Sarah Harmon would like to work with 2-3 students who will be continuing into Fall 2023 semester on creating guidance for students. This would be about a total of 4 hours each commitment and could get paid through additional funds from the foundation. The 4 hours includes training on the subject from Sarah Harmon. We have an additional $2,000 in the budget above the already established budget. We would need to vote to use $300 - $500 of these funds for this project. Guidance on Plagiarism and Artificial Intelligence		Discussion Action	10
9.5	Recommendation to District Academic Senate The District Student Council recommends that the District Academic Senate collaborate with the District Curriculum Committee to design, create and take through the curriculum approval process a 1 unit course with credit and non-credit options that would support students new to the college and district level shared governance. The content of the course could focus on agenda review, initiative and participating in meetings, inner-personal communications, microaggressions, power dynamics and the power of student voice,		Discussion Action	10
