9.1	DSC Location/Rotation Discussion We will discuss whether we should make a bylaws (will require DSC vote and 2/3 Student Senate Approval vote) change to not continue a rotation of DSC and hold it in one location at the SMCCD District Office. If we decide to keep a rotation we need to discuss what order of rotation. Additionally, Brown Act allows for multiple public locations to be used to teleconference in. We could list all three schools as additional locations and teleconference in each public location. Government Code: 54953 If we use teleconferencing in multiple locations the following is required. Agenda to be posted in all locations, public comment is accessible in all locations, each location must be able to see the main meeting location and be able to interact with audio and any member or member of the public would be allowed to record or take pictures at each public location.	discussed rules regarding quorum idea: -make district the “home” place -have it in one place (CSM) temporary suspension of the location bylaws for april, may, and june meetings so moved by Win second jaime passes	Discussion Action	15
9.2	DSC recommendation to Associated Student Bodies of SMCCCD San Mateo County Community College Foundation provided the following budgets to each college’s student body governments in our district for a pilot program for Spring 2023 semester to pay appointed students	can $11,600 sky $11,200 csm $15,200 suggestion: make the pay hourly	Discussion Action	20

	Agenda Item	Notes	Process	Time in Minutes
	representatives by the Associated Student for participating in Participatory Governance Meeting: Cañada College, College of San Mateo, Skyline. DSC recommends that each Associated Student body use these funds to pay each student $100 per participatory governance meeting for the Spring 2023 pilot program. These funds will be distributed through a scholarship through the college's financial aid departments. Each Associated Student Body is responsible for managing their respective funding budget and if they have any overage they should take the funds from their local student representative funds. Additionally DSC recommends that each college have students participating in this pilot program to meet with a financial aid representative at their college to explain how this will impact their financial aid package.	have a say in where the money comes from because as a scholarship this can affect students financial aid, but is the only way undocumented students would be able to be compensated make recommendation motion win second jaime
