

STUDY ABROAD

NCSAC SEMESTER ABROAD Barcelona Fall 2023 Budget Sheet

Explanation of Program Fee and Tuition

Program fee is paid to AIFS— it covers housing, orientation, metro pass, sight-seeing tours, cultural activities programs, excursions and field trips, museum pass, medical insurance, and a variety of support services while abroad.

Tuition for twelve units is paid directly to the NCSAC college(s) at which you take your classes abroad – College of San Mateo, American River College Santa Rosa Junior College, or Diablo Valley College.

Program Fee and Tuition

Program Fee Option A: Shared Apartment	$7,945
Program Fee Option B: Shared Homestay (for a supplemental fee of $750: includes breakfast daily and dinner five nights per week)	$8,695
Tuition*	Between $0 - $552
*Students may qualify for free tuition

Additional Out-of-Pocket Expenses

In addition to the program fee and tuition expenses outlined above, you will need to budget for your out-of-pocket expenses. Below are estimated expenses. Actual expenses will vary depending on your lifestyle and spending habits.

Group Roundtrip International Airfare	$1,321
Meals and Personal Expenses*	Between about $2,100 - $3,000
Books	Amounts vary
Passport Fees (if you need a new passport)	$165